

Under the following terms and conditions the renter of the equipment provided by Southwest Party rental understand that

Date

- Southwest Party Rental rents their equipment on a per day basis. If the equipment is returned after the appropriate date the renter will be charged for the number of days it is overdue.
- The renter understands that there is a 15% deposit required in order to hold their equipment. This deposit will be kept by Southwest Party Rental if the renters cancel their order within 8 days of their event..
- There can be no reduction of quantity 48 hours in advance of the event

Delivery and Setup

- Southwest Party will deliver anywhere at additional charges depending on the venue. If Southwest Party Rental delivers; on pickup date, tables and chairs must be stacked at an easily accessible location where a truck can get to them. If they are not, additional charges may apply.
- Southwest Party Rental will setup any of our equipment at additional charges depending on the venue and setup required. We will also tear down and pick up the equipment at an additional charge. These services must be scheduled in advance.

Equipment

- It is the renter's responsibility to protect all equipment from weather and other destructive forces. Under these terms and conditions they understand that they are held liable for any damages to any equipment and will be charged the fixing cost or replacement value.
- There is a 5% damage waiver on any and all goods rented from Southwest Party Rental
- Tents must be cancelled 20 days before an event or an additional 10% will be kept by Southwest Party Rental
- All other equipment is subject to 8 days' notice for cancelation

The renter agrees to above terms and conditions when Southwest Party Rental receives deposit on their rental. The renter also agrees to pay in full the day of the rental when Southwest Party Rental picks up the equipment.